

day 11

This documentary came out a couple of years ago, and is a must watch! It follows women at different stages in their rowing journey - from high school team to the Olympics. Lift your spirit by watching their powerful transformation and physical and mental growth.

